Annual Reports Presented at Business Session of Methodist Conference

Elect Leckrone
Secretary; 81,359
Members in Area

The Southern Illinois Methodist conference, meeting here this week, moved into business Thursday afternoon on the first day of the four-day meeting after registration, a service honoring the dead and the Communion service had been completed. Bishop Charles W. Branson presided throughout.

Eugene M. Leckrone of the Belleville Union church was elected secretary for four years. He already has completed two years, making him senior secretary.

He then appointed his staff of workers to assist in the business of the conference, which spreads out into many fields and involves $4,075,219 paid directly through the 488 churches of the conference where 276 pastors have charges. This does not include the finances of a college, two hospitals, an orphanage and an old folks home, which run the amount to nearly two million dollars more.

81,359 Members

The business of the conference also involves 81,359 members, a decrease from last year's 81,423 as shown by the reports of the four district superintendents read by Dr. Wendell Robinson of the Carbondale district. Cleaning up church records of inactive members is responsible for part of the loss, Dr. Robinson explained.

Between the report of Dr. Robinson and the report of the conference treasurer, Earl Barrett, and the conference statistician, the Rev. Carl Davis, many figures were given. They revealed the following:

(a) Sunday school attendance is up 398 but the membership is down 134 from 72,938 to 72,804;

(b) The Women's Society of Christian Service, largest organization of Methodist women, increased but fell in membership but gave $8,524 more than last year;

(c) Estimated value of all church property in the conference is set at $19,178,000;

(d) Indebtedness of buildings, parsonages, equipment and other items jumped from $915,000 last year to $1,185,744 this year.

McKendree to Receive $33,000

The reports were followed by discussions and questions relative to the distribution of conference benevolences, a sum set at $110,000 to be divided into a dozen or more funds with McKendree college topping the list with $33,000 and the board of temperance for temperance work receiving $200.

One delegate, who said that little was provided for church extension in areas where population has grown, revealed the commission decided to revise its figures overnight and present them this morning, with the idea of asking more from churches of the conference to provide for necessary needs.

Last night, following a banquet and inspirational hour, the church auditorium was filled to hear Dr. R. B. Pierce of Indianapolis deliver a powerful sermon.

It was planned that the overflow of people would hear the service from the education building thru a loudspeaker. The extension cord, however, picked up a radio program with such volume that this plan had to be abandoned, leaving several hundred from hearing the proceedings.

The Southern Illinois Methodist conference, in session this morning, voted to authorize the raising of $225,000 in funds to construct an adequate building for the Wesley Foundation at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

The request was taken before the conference by Dr. H. G. Hurley of the First Methodist church of Carbondale.

The conference already has lots between the university and the business district, upon which to construct such a building. It is planned to raise the funds within the year.

Navy Board Probes Death Of Recruit, 17

GREAT LAKES, Ill. (UPI)— Rear Adm. Emmett Forstel said today that "nothing will be hidden" in the Navy's investigation into the death of a 17-year-old recruit following a rifle drill.

Maurice G. Everett, 17, McKinley, Tenn., collapsed in barracks Tuesday and died a few hours later. He had been drilling and performing other duties on a hot day.

A preliminary medical report indicated his death stemmed from heat stroke. An autopsy has been ordered and a board of inquiry is examining the case. No report is expected from the board or from medical sources for at least a week.

Officers of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station here held a news conference today for a discussion of the case. And Capt. Charles B. Jackson, commanding officer of the recruit training program, said that Everett had not been undergoing disciplinary action.

"Between now and 1958," he said, "any attack by the Russians involving large numbers of jet aircraft would give us difficulties from an operational point of view."

The four-star general said that at present Russian jet engines are more powerful than ours and their interceptor fighters "are slightly superior."

Partridge said the Russians now are capable of launching "hundreds of bombers" in an attack against this country.

Partridge said the overall Air Force program for continental defense, including radar detection systems, has a $1-billion-dollar price tag. This would provide protection against manned bombers only and not against ocean-spanning missiles.

The program called for expenditure of about four billion dollars a year for 15 years, 1951-1965. But he said that "very little of this has been spent; the big costs still lie ahead."

New Stockholders Give Henry Ford II And Auto Firm Vote of Confidence

DETROIT (UPI) — Some 2,700 of the Ford Motor Company's new stockholders gave Henry Ford II and the auto firm a vote of confidence Thursday.

The company entertained the stockholders in a giant tent at the first annual stockholders meeting since Ford stock went on the open market last Jan. 18. The atmosphere was rough that of a circus on Wall Street.

Those who attended pretty well illustrated the company claim that it was "an unusually large number of small stockholders" who bought the stock. On hand were children who invested their savings accounts, retired oldsters who live on their investments and a good many plain folks who came to get a whiff of the atmosphere of high finance.

Most of them bought their stock in the rush to buy at its $64.50 opening price. At mid-day, as President Henry Ford II was telling them of his confidence in the company, the price on the New York exchange was $41.8, a new low.

The stockholders, filling a huge tent over the lawn beside the Ford display rotunda in the heart of the firm's Dearborn facilities, had their chance to show their displeasure over the $10 per share five months loss.

Isadore Blau, Brooklyn, N. Y., owner of four shares, an admitted veteran minority stockholder objector, offered a stock proposal amendment which was anti-management.

Blau's amendment would have required executives who can buy a remaining million shares at $21 per share to hold that stock for at least three years before selling. He said the executives were dumping these shares on the market and driving the price down further.

But after Ford and board chairman Ernest R. Breech stated the company's belief that it was in the best interests of all to leave the stock option plan stand as it is, five stockholders came forward to speak for the executives' right to sell and only one to agree with Blau.

Mayors Daley, Wagner Lash Ike Administration

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D. Written for NEA Service

A tiny mouse frightens some people more than a serious impending danger.

Occasionally a woman will scream at the sight of the little creatures playing hide-and-seek under the furniture or behind a half-closed door. Girls have been known to faint when the little fellows happened to run over the toes of their shoes.

These same fearful people will remain calm in the face of tragedy which could be much more serious than the presence of these little elusive creatures.

A few weeks ago, many people sat strapped in their airplane seats for several hours while buffeting winds tossed their planes about like corks on an angry sea. We flew several hours beyond the scheduled time while on the ground tornados ripped houses from their foundations and trees were torn up by their roots.

No one was comfortable on the planes. Many were sick, but all were relatively calm. There was no one screaming. No one was in hysterics, even when the motors riveted to the wings pulled at their moorings and appeared ready to fall off.

Why did the calm exist in the midst of serious danger, in contrast to the hysterical reaction in the presence of a mouse?

In the plane, there was prayer to God for protection from death and accident. In the presence of the mouse, no one called on God.

There is a difference when people pray, even if only one or two are praying.

Eisenhower Proposes Worldwide Belt of Schools to Ease Tensions

WACO, Tex. (UPI) — President Eisenhower today proposed a worldwide belt of technical and scientific schools to relieve world tensions.

The President spoke before 11,200 persons, including 665 graduates of Baylor University, in the Heart O'Texas Coliseum. His speech was a long-advertised White House statement on foreign affairs.

Mr. Eisenhower also pleaded for European unity and seemed to be asking support of his foreign policy. He said that world communism is a "gigantic failure."

He advised the hundreds of millions of persons behind the Iron Curtain to "walk fearlessly in the fullness of human freedom" behind the leadership of the West.

Proposed Broad Program

In what appeared to be a sort of intellectual Point Four program, he suggested that the great universities of the country join, "strongly supported" with private foundations in the devoted task of a broad educational program.

He said that the whole world would be stronger, "if there exist adequate institutions of modern techniques and sciences in areas of the world where the hunger for knowledge and the ability to use educational facilities are often not equal to the existing need."

Mr. Eisenhower flew to Waco to accept an honorary doctorate of laws from Baylor. The President's visit also had a slight political undertone.

An airline spokesman said the plane's pilot, co-pilot and hostess and seven men who loaded the virus on the plane were given shots of gamma globulin and Salk polio vaccine.

He said no passengers were

Six-Year-Old Cathy Foster, Formerly Of Ridgway, Dies

Cathy Lou Ann Foster, six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berney Foster of Metropolis, formerly of Ridgway, died in the Massac Memorial hospital in Metropolis banner in a manner to encourage Iron Curtain country defectors from the Russian orbit.

He called world communism "cruel, intolerant and atheistic," a doctrine of "lure, intimidation and force."

"Communism is, in deepest sense, a gigantic failure," he said. He attempted to encourage the aspirations of people still pinned down behind the so-called Iron Curtain of Russian influence.

The chief executive said that beyond the Iron Curtain there are "hundreds of millions" moved by their religions and aspirations of freedom" that cannot be answered merely by more steel and bigger bombers."

10 Aboard Plane Endangered by Live Polio Virus

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A bottle containing almost a quart of deadly live polio virus broke Thursday night aboard a passenger plane exposing 10 airline employees to possible infection.

Seventeen cartons of quart-sized vials filled with virus were loaded on the Capital Airlines plane at National Airport.

The broken vial was spotted 33 minutes later when the plane arrived at Friendship Airport outside of Baltimore, Md.

An airline spokesman said the plane's pilot, co-pilot and hostess and seven men who loaded the virus on the plane were given shots of gamma globulin and Salk polio vaccine.

He said no passengers were

Buick structure—the extra pride and prestige of Buick's new styling and dash.

Here, too—and nowhere else—you can get the silk-smooth performance and flash-fast response of Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—the world's only transmission with the gas-saving mileage and switch-pitch action of the modern airplane propeller.

This week—this very day, if you wish—you can sample all these Buick blessings to your heart's content and your pocket's joy. Why not drop in on us and do just that?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Hiroshima Maiden Dies During Surgery

the world's first atom bomb raid.

Tomoko Nakabayashi, 26, died six hours after the plastic surgery at Mt. Sinai hospital. It was her third operation to remove the scars of World War II.

She was one of 25 Japanese girls who came to the United States to hope again for the beauty they lost during the historic leveling of Hiroshima on Japan's inland sea.

Some were so hideously disfigured they lived the lives of recluses in the picturesque city that rose again from the rubble.

"It seems impossible to recover the beauty that nature gave to us, but we live in hope," one of the girls said at a shy, giggling reception upon their arrival one year ago.

Named the "Hiroshima Maidens" by a sympathetic public, they were warmly received everywhere and taken in to American homes to live while they awaited their turns at the hospital's overcrowded operating room.

Army Seeks to Operate Own, Larger Planes

WASHINGTON — The Army today added a new spark to the simmering feud between the military services. It declared that it wants authority to operate heavier and longer-ranged aircraft.

Under a 1952 Army-Air Force agreement, the Army now may operate aircraft no heavier than 5,000 pounds. Such planes are in the light, fixed-wing and helicopter category.

But the Army declared that it now needs planes which would have ranges of perhaps thousands of miles to be used in adjusting guided missile fire and to carry out other missions.

It also said that certain types of planes should be under the "unconditional command" of a ground officer and that Army pilots should not only understand ground warfare but have an interest "underpinned by other allegiances."

To carry out the Army program would require a complete overhaul of the 1952 Army-Air Force agreement. The two services already are feuding over the extent to which the Army should have its own aviation arm. The Army now has about 4,000 planes of its own.

Mother Kills Three Children, Attempts Suicide

LAKE WALES, Fla. — Police reported today that a mother shot her three young daughters, placed them neatly in their beds as if they were asleep, called a doctor, then tried to take her own life.

The mother, identified as Mrs. Laurene Culbeck, wife of Mark Culbeck, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., was in the Lake Wales hospital. Doctors said she was in critical condition after shooting herself in the chest.

The three children, found by police in a bed in the Culbeck house trailer, were nude, covered with a blanket and "were lying in a row." Two were dead "for hours" said police while the third, a 15-month-old infant, died on the way to a hospital.

The children were identified as Shirely, 5; Pamela, 3; and Jan, the infant.

Neighbors said Mrs. Culbeck had lived at the well-kept trailer park in a new model trailer in 1953 and 1954 and had returned here last summer without her husband.

Police Chief Tom Petty said apparently Mrs. Culbeck took each child for a separate ride in her car, drove from the trailer camp, took their clothing off, shot them and then returned to the trailer.

Study Claims to Decide Parents of Abandoned Baby

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. — Police studied the conflicting claims of an Ohio father and a Missouri couple today and tried to decide which are parents of a baby abandoned on the doorstep of a television weatherman.

Detective Chief Willard Gantz leaned toward a belief the boy belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sheldon of St. Charles, Mo. Sheldon told authorities at Rochester, N. Y., they placed their ailing son on the porch of Wally Bruner, a Terre Haute father of seven children including two sets of twins under 2 years old.

Gantz said the Sheldon story of details of the abandonment checked quite closely with the actual facts.

But Harris Ernst, 39, Dayton, Ohio, was convinced the baby is his.

Ernst was released from Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., Federal Penitentiary only last Monday after serving a term for Army desertion. He said when he last heard from the child's mother she was living in Kokomo, Ind.

"I go for the Sheldon story," Gantz said. "From what he told the prosecutor in New York, everything checks."

A strange coincidence was the claim that both babies had recent brain operations. The abandoned baby, estimated to be 12 to 14 months old, had surgery scars on its head which doctors estimated were made within the last three months.

Mickey Mantle Hits 17th Homer, Four Singles In Leading Yankees to 11-4 Win

By United Press

Mickey Mantle and then conceded he'll continue his current slugging heroes through the entire season.

If you can—and why not dream for a while?—then the New York Yankees' 24-year-old center-fielder is going to be a composite of Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, Lou Gehrig and George Sisler in their greatest years!

It sounds fantastic but that's what you get if you pro-rate Mantle's slugging in the Yankees' first 35 games over the 154-game campaign. Besides, isn't that what the Yankee publicity men have been saying all along?

The red-hot Oklahoma kid went on another rampage Thursday when he smashed five hits, including his 17th homer of the year and four singles, in leading the Yankees to an 11-4 victory over the Detroit Tigers. In addition to homers, he now leads the majors with a .421 average, 56 hits, 39 runs scored, 39 runs batted in and 117 total bases.

Reason for Lead

It helps to explain why the Yankees lead the American League by three games when those figures are translated into a 154-game season as follows:

G-154, AB-585, R-171, H-246, 2B-35, 3B-4, HR-75, TB-514, RBI-171, Pct.-421.

Fantastic? Look at it this way: Such a performance would break Ruth's season Homer mark by 15 and the Babe's total base record of 457. It would top Cobb's .420 average in his greatest season. In addition, it would fall six short of Ruth's runs scored mark, 11 shy of Sisler's record for hits and 13 below Gehrig's RBI standard.

The figures, arrived at by multiplying Mantle's current "line" by 44, suggest still another question: How come the Yankees haven't won 35 straight?

Mantle's slugging proved catching Thursday as the Yankees blasted out 17 hits for the second straight game. Ed Robinson contributed a grand slam homer and Joe Collins and Andy Carey also homered as the Yankees rolled to their eighth victory in their last nine games.

Allows Two Hits

Tom Sturdivant relieved Bob Turley in the fourth inning and yielded only two hits in 5 1-3 frames to gain his third triumph in six days. Duke Maas, shelled out of the box in the third inning, suffered his third loss for the Tigers.

Willie Jones, beamed by Brooklyn pitcher Don Newcombe during spring training, walloped two homers and a single to lead the Philadelphia Phillies to a 6-4 victory over the Dodgers in the only other major league game.

Robin Roberts yielded homers to Duke Snider, Carl Furillo and Jackie Robinson but was touched for only seven hits and struck out nine batters in gaining his fifth triumph of the season. The loss left the Dodgers in a fourth-place tie with the Pirates.

Rookie Don Drysdale, who beat the Phillies on April 23, suffered the defeat while Sal Maglie, making his debut in a Brooklyn uniform, was touched for four hits and two runs in two innings of relief.

Fullmer-Humez

Bout Tonight

NEW YORK — Frenchman Charles Humez, middleweight champion of Europe, and Utah's Gene Fullmer, outstanding American contender, fight tonight in Madison Square Garden for the right to a shot at the world crown.

Humez, 29, is favored at 13-10 to win their nationally televised and broadcast 10-rounders, which starts at 8 p. m. CST.

Fullmer, 24, has been well supported in the heavy betting, which was at "even money" until Wednesday night, when veteran Humez began to forge ahead because of his great experience, smoother boxing and higher world-rating.

The Frenchman is ranked number one; Fullmer, number two.

Exceptionally brisk wagering was inspired by the fact that each fought the same opponent, Ralph (Tiger) Jones, in his last start; and the pell-mell pummeller from West Jordan, Utah, did better than the more stylish bob-weaver from France. In his American debut on March 23, Humez lost a decision to Jones. It snatched his unbeaten string at 18. But on April 20, Fullmer outpointed Jones.

The meeting was led by former U. S. Sen. Scott W. Lucas, Havana, and ex-Gov. John McLeansboro. Both are opposed to Stevenson.

Admit Stevenson

Had Favor of Some Delegates

SPRINGFIELD — A number of downstate Democratic convention delegates admitted today native son Adlai Stevenson had the favor of some delegates at the meeting which gave him a cold brush-off.

None of the delegates contacted by United Press would say, however, specifically how many of the delegates at the meeting expressed themselves as favorable to Stevenson's candidacy for the party's presidential nomination.

But all agreed there was sentiment expressed for Stevenson, which was not mentioned in a statement issued after the meeting.

The meeting was led by former U. S. Sen. Scott W. Lucas, Havana, and ex-Gov. John McLeansboro. Both are opposed to Stevenson.

Fire Breaks Out
Second Time in Waltonville Mine

WALTONVILLE, Ill. — Fire has broken out in a coal mine here for the second time within seven months. The blaze was discovered at Freeman Coal Corporation's Orient No. 3 Thursday night. It is believed spontaneous combustion set off the blaze in a worked-out section of the mine. A mine rescue team and a crew of miners sealed off the fire, which did not damage the working section of the mine. The mine was shut down pending inspection by state and federal mine inspectors, who will decide when mining operations can be resumed.

Last October a fire raged for several days and then smoldered for weeks in Orient No. 3 before production could be resumed. That fire started when a coal buggy ran over and shorted an electric cable.

The nation's cars, buses and trucks logged 500 billion vehicle miles during 1955.

Seek Undergraduate Chapter of Journalism Fraternity at SIU

CARBONDALE, Ill. — The Southern Press club, an organization of Southern Illinois university journalism students, has obtained permission from the executive council of Sigma Delta Chi, honorary national journalism fraternity, to seek an undergraduate chapter of the fraternity at SIU. Charles C. Clayton, club sponsor, is a past national president of Sigma Delta Chi, and is a member of the SIU journalism department faculty.

According to the preliminary petition, nearly 70 SIU students are enrolled in journalism. Forty-five are male students and 35 are majoring in news writing. Sixteen are members of the club. Seven of the eight journalism faculty members are members of Sigma Delta Chi.

The petition is being supported by the Southern Illinois and the St. Louis professional chapters of Sigma Delta Chi as well as by individuals who are past national officers in the organization.

The club expects to present a formal petition at the 1956 national convention of Sigma Delta Chi in Louisville next winter.

Charges involving bad check activity that occurred in this county in mid-April have been filed in county court.

Three informations were filed by State's Attorney Robert B. Wilson naming Lawrence Lane, who lived here for a while, with writing fraudulent checks.

One complaint says that on April 14 he wrote a check for $435 at the Craggs-Devillez furniture store, which was returned because of insufficient funds.

Another complaint says that on April 14 he cashed checks for $50 and for $34.96 at the Kroger store in Harrisburg.

On April 15 he cashed a bad check for $132.22 at the Green Bros. hardware store at Eldorado. All checks were written on the Harrisburg National bank.

Officers have been looking for Lane since shortly after the checks were written, but have found no trace of him.

In other charges filed by the state's attorney, James Raulston was charged with indecent exposure in public view at Eldorado and Lorenz Gholson was charged with driving while intoxicated and with driving after revocation of his driver's license.

Gholson was arrested on Route 142 five miles north of Eldorado by State Policeman Carl Pendell of McLeansboro.

Presbyterian General Assembly to Vote on $24.3 Million Budget

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The 168th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. was asked today to approve a $24,344,063 budget for 1957.

The proposed budget, approved by the church's general council, compares with a budget of $21,830,000 for 1955. No set dollar amount was approved at the 167th General Assembly for the current year. A formula for distribution of contributions was approved instead.

The 1,000 delegates Thursday elected David Proffitt of Maryville, Tenn., moderator of the General Assembly for the coming year. Proffitt, a 64-year-old businessman, was the first layman elected since 1947.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate dealt President Eisenhower a setback Thursday by voting down his public housing program. The vote was 41-38.

The Senate turned back a Republican move to amend the housing bill to provide for 35,000 low-rental public housing units a year as Mr. Eisenhower had requested.

THE TRUE AND THE LIVING GOD

The Christian religion claims that there is only one God true and living. The National Council of Churches says, they called God by different names, speaking to Him in different tongues.

Is Allah the same God as the God of the Christians? Is Buddha the same God? Are Buddha, Confucius, Allah, and the other Gods of these pagan religions the same as the God of the Scriptures? The Bible King James Version says they are idols. Psalms 9:6-5. For all the gods of the nations are idols; but the Lord made the heavens. Baal was not just another name for the true and living God to Elijah, he said call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the Lord. 1-Kings 18:24, read this chapter and see who answers prayer. What is happening to Christianity when the gods of the heathen are recognized as the same God as the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ?

Ministers and Laymen of the National Council it's time to get alive to the True and The Living God.
